ANNOUNCEMENTS

FAMOUS BUSINESS SCHOOL Opened September 7

With the largest enrollment in its history, the Bryant & Stratton Commercial School began its years' work Tuesday, September 7. The success of this school, which is one of the best known in the United States in the latter of the state of the state. which is one of the best known in the United States, is a striking testimony to the value of efficient methods in business education. In the first place, the school building is especially adapted to its needs. In fact it was constructed especially for the school with every needed facility, excellent light from high, wide windows and plenty of fresh air. It is located in the most convenient section of the city. the most convenient section of the city, between Arlington, Boylston and Providence Streets.

The Bryant & Stratton teaching plan is the individual system, based on the particular requirements of each pupil. Actual practice is combined with study. The different courses fit students not only for general business but for secretarial and stenographic positions, civil service examinations, accounting, and iting and and stenographic positions, civil service examinations, accounting, auditing and teaching of commercial branches in high schools. Graduates from this school are always in demand in the business world. The Bryant & Stratton School has day sessions only, from 9 to 2, with no classes on Saturdays or evenings. A tribute to the high standing of the school is the fact that all patronage comes unsolicited—no canvassing or other methods—in common practice by business "colleges"—being used to obtain pupils.

DAVIS THEATRE. The Gallarini Four Big Musical Act and All New Pictures Today.

Crowded houses at every perform ance the past two days have shown their appreciation to the Gallarini Four the big Keith Musical Act that is the vaudeville attraction for the first half of this week. They play numerous different instruments and the selections chosen range from ragtime to the big operatic numbers that only artists can handle properly. If you haven't heard this wonderful act be sure and see them today as this will be the last chance to enjoy this big musical treat. There will be a complete change of photoplays today and the eleventh chapter of the Diaand the eleventh chapter of the Diamond From the Sky will be shown. It is called The Web of Destiny and protrays further adventures of this wonderfud Diamond mystery. $10,-000 is offered for a sequel to this picture, and you have a chance to win this big prize by following the picture each week at this theatre.

Another big feature on this bill is The Old High Chair, a two reel Majestic drama of deep heart in rest, featuring the two popular stars, Gladys Brockwell and William E. Laurence, this is a touching playlet of rence, this is a touching playlet of the reminiscense of an old lady who finds an old high chair in her atic that belonged to her children, all of incidents of her life pass before her as she looks at this old relic of bygone days and the pictures of all the joys and sorrows of her life are depicted in this beautiful feature. The remainder of the bill consists of The One who Serves, a clever dramtic production and Mabél Fatty at the World's Fair, supply the comedy. This besides being one of the funniest pictures that these two clever laugh makers have ever appeared in, shows many interesting glimpses of the World's Fair and surroundings.

There will be a change of vaudeville tomorrow and the management have secured. Keeny and Hollis, the two cleverest fun makers in vaudeville for this last half of the week.

COLONIAL THEATRE. "Midnight at Maxim's," Four . Act Spectacular Ballet Feature.

This is the picture about which everybody is talking. Don't miss it to-day for it will be here at the Colonial only one day. Midnight at Maxim's is the one real snappy cabaret fea-ture that has appeared on the scenes ture that has appeared on the scenes of the motion picture world this year, and it is centain to delight, entertain, and adouse all. It is the story of a seminary student, who seated under a tree on the campus, notices a girl stop to tie her shoe-lacings. The trim ankle is not lost sight of, and the student follows her to her destination, and finds she is Tottie Twinkle-toes, a Maxim beauty, and premier danseuse of the big Maxim establishment, Remembering this, the student, whome name is Mr. Shye (for he is a theological student), decides to see the whome name is Mr. Shye (for he is a theological student), decides to see the little fairy in her brightest moments. Arriving early, he waits until midnight, the hour of the cabaret show. Then follows the monster show for which special music is written. These dances include the Pajama Parade, Bon Bon Belles, Vest Number, Chinese Fantasy, Eve Promenade, Bustanoby Oriental Maids, Novelty Dance, and Maxim's Ballet. The Rector Girls, appear in the Muff Number, Donkey Dance, and Bathing Revue Donkey Dance, and Bathing Revue. Among the many big artists of the terpischorean world who appear in the terpischorean world who appear in the solo numbers are Baroness Irmgard von Rottenthal, Leo Pirnikoff. Ethel Rose the Cameron Girls, Bert Weston and Dorothy Ozuman. The freat dancing numbers are the last note in ultra modern dancing, and the public will be educated in the most delightful fashion in the world's most fascinating diversion. Other striking films for today are The Breaks of the Game, Edison, and Sophie and the Faker, comedy.

Marguerite Clark at the Auditorium A banner show will be given at the Auditorium.

A banner show will be given at the Auditorium today and tomorrow when Marguerite Clark will appear in Greina Green, a four part Paramount feature, the tenth episode of the Broken Coin, in two reels, and the Paramount Travel pictures showing the Father Neptune initiations which the lates of the paramount of the property of the proper take place on board a ship crossing the equator, and several interesting scenes on the Island of Jamacia.

Marguerite Clark, the dainty, dimin-tive, magnetic star of Wildflower, the Crucible, and The Goose Girl,

The Crucible, and The Goose Girl, attains another superb screen triumph in the latest Famous Players' production, a four part adaptation of Grace Livingston Furniss' charming comedy-drama, Gretna Green.

To find herself married to the man whom she actually believes she detests is the unusual position Miss Clark finds herself in at the climaxity period of her softways of the famed Clark finds herself in at the climaxtiv period of her intraval of the famed character of Dolly Erskine, helress of a vast fortune, belle of Harrowgate, and coquette, in the film version of this noted romantic comedy, of Scotland in the early nineteenth century.

Miss Clark's winsome personality, the piquant beauty and elfin grace assist her in making the tantalizing and bewitching role of Dolly Erskine in ideal character creation.

Gretna Green is named after the famed locality in the northern part of Scotland, where during the nineteenth century romantic coules whose marriages were opposed by stony-hearted parents could come and wed without the requirements of parental consent. And, according to the custom of this arcadian country, it did not make a particle of difference who performed the ceremony. Once within the lines of Gretna, the spoken word was enough to bind the eloping couple. And it is thus that Dolly, after warning the incognito Earl of Basset that she would never marry him, finds herself in a compromising position and in order to save the honor of her married sister, who was eloping with an other man, tells all that the supposed riding-master (the disguised earl) is ber husband. This casual remark is enough to bind her to the Earl in reality, according to the law of the period.

But all things hold their march
As if by one great will.
Moves one, move all;
Hark to the footfall!
On, on, forever.

You sheaves were once but seed;
Will ripens into deed;
As eave-drops swell the streams
Day-thoughts feed mighty dream
And sorrow tracketh wrong
An echo follows song,
On, on, forever.

By night, like stars on high,
The hours reveal their train;
They whisper and go by;
i never watch in vain;
Moves one, move all;
Hark to the footfall
On, on, forever.

They pass the cradic head,
And there a promise shed;
They pass a moist new grave,
And bid rank verdure wave;
They bear through every clime
The harvest of all time,
On, on, forever.
—Harriet Martineau.
